THE HISTORY OF Park Slope

Park Slope is a neighborhood made up of Prospect Park and the slope leading to it. Prospect Park is a large park located on the east side of Park Slope created by Calvert Vaux and his partner Frederick Law Olmsted in 1867, two years after the termination of the Civil War. At the time, there were only a few parks like this in the United States, such as Central Park in Manhattan, which opened in 1859, and it was unusual compared to European cities where many parks existed. Americans who longed for a European "life near a park" dreamed of living near a park such as Prospect Park West.

In the 1880s and 1890s, many Victorian mansions were built in Prospect Park West with amazing park views. In 1883, the Brooklyn Bridge was completed, connecting Brooklyn and Manhattan, and plethora of brick houses and brownstones were built. Today, brownstone houses remain in Park Slope making the area by Prospect Park designated as the Park Slope Historic District by the New York Landmarks Preservation Commission. Also, the Grand Army Plaza at the north end of the park is home to the Battle of Long Island, one of the major battles of the Revolutionary War. There, stands a triumphal arch, the Soldiers' and Sailors' Arch, commemorating the Union Army from the Civil War. Park Slope, arguably the most historic area of Brooklyn, continues to attract people from all around the city.

If you are fortunate enough to visit Brooklyn be sure to take a tour of Park Slope, including Prospect Park, and the beautiful brownstones lining the neighborhoods. where you will feel the long history of the neighborhood.

Park SlopeはProspect Parkとそこに続く坂道で構成される地域です。Prospect ParkはPark Slopeの東側に位置する大規模な公園で、南北戦争が終結した2年後の1867年にCalvert VauxとパートナーのFrederick Law Olmstedの二人によって造られました。当時のアメリカには、このような公園は1859年に開園したマンハッタンのCentral Parkほどしかなく、公園が多く存在したヨーロッパの都市の雰囲気とは大きく異なっていました。ヨーロッパのような「公園近くの生活」に憧れたアメリカ人はProspect Park Westなどの公園の傍に住むことが夢でした。

1880年代、1890年代になるとProspect Park Westに素晴らしいパーク・ビューを楽しめるヴィクトリア朝の邸宅が数多く建てられました。そして、1883年にブルックリンとマンハッタンを結ぶ橋、Brooklyn Bridgeが完成しレンガ造りの住宅やブラウンストーン造りの住宅がいくつも建造されました。現在でもブラウンストーンはPark Slopeに残っており、Prospect ParkのそばのエリアはNew York Landmarks Preservation CommissionによりPark Slope Historic Districtに制定されています。このほかにも、Prospect Parkの北端に位置するGrand Army Plazaではアメリカ独立戦争の際の主要な戦闘の一つであるロングアイランドの戦いが行われました。同地には、南北戦争で戦った北軍の兵士たちを記念した凱旋門、the Soldiers' and Sailors' Archが建っています。ブルックリンの中でも最も歴史色の強いエリアと言っても過言ではないPark Slopeは、市内中から人々を惹きつけています。

ブルックリンに訪れることができた際はぜひともPark Slopeまで足を延ばしてもらい、Prospect Parkと美しいブラウンストーンの街並みをご覧になって長い歴史を感じ取っていただきたいです。

New York, get ready. We propose an invasion of island spice you never knew you needed and soon won't fathom living without. We offer flavor inspired by the vibrant, robust, and authentic culinary tradition of the Greater and Lesser Antilles, twisted with some modern chic. The goal is simple: use the best ingredients, prepare all meals with love, elevate these dishes from mama's kitchen to New York's bistro, and in doing so provide a new home for the taste buds of these streets.
